

JIANJUN L.

Mandarin Language
Teacher
from China

PROFILE

I am a passionate Mandarin Chinese language teacher. After my bachelor's degree, I taught Chinese as a Foreign Language to children in an Australian elementary school. Upon my return, I taught Chinese language to English speaking children at my Alma-mater high school in China. I believe learning Chinese language can as fun as it is relevant to succeeding in the global marketplace. I love helping children to grasp vocabulary, reading, and speech through age-appropriate lessons.
